1. Early in June 1950 a new airfield was opened in Levec, which is three kilometers west of Celje. Forty to fifty single and twin-engine light aircraft are now based at this field. These airplanes are painted silver grey and have a red star. They are believed to be military aircraft. Numerous barracks have been built to accommodate personnel assigned to the Levec field.
2. Air traffic in the vicinity of Celje has increased considerably since June.
